Furthermore, the Villa is situated just 15 minutes from the Vicenza Est toll booth, a short drive to some of the most important areas of Veneto. Verona, Padova and Venezia are all within one hour's drive from the Villa.

Villa Montanari – Arcugnano (VI)

Villa Montanari, over its long history, has served many purposes: noble residence, house for the G.I.L. (“Gioventù Italiana del Littorio” – Italian Youth of the Lictor), military training center, private house, library and health center.

Villa Montanari – Arcugnano (VI)

Villa Montanari represents a precious, well-preserved example, of “Villa Veneta” in neoclassical style of XIX century.

The facade shares many stylistic similarities with Villa Curti in Sovizzo (VI)

Villa Montanari – Arcugnano (VI)

The symmetrical structure and the employment of traditional materials, such as clay-bricks and Vicenza stone, are some of the most evident neo-palladian influences of Villa Montanari.

The architecture and the facade have obvious Palladian influences.
